He was the youngest of three sons of Late Shri Ganeshi Lal Ji Agrawal. High levels of values, beliefs, noble deeds, and top-notch traditions have been his hallmark. His commitment to education is a tribute to the Almighty in a big way. Since start, he has been blessed with a widely-acclaimed acumen and has been known for his many endeavours in numerous fields. He kept on leaping one success after another apart from fulfilling his family obligations with elan. During the past years, he has been felicitated innumerable times and has held posts of significance in various organizations, at state and country level. He is known for his philanthropic initiatives and for working for the underprivileged sections as well as overall society. In the year 1998 GLA Institute of Technology and Management came into existence under the aegis of this society which he established in memory of his father Late Shri Ganeshi Lal Ji Agrawal. Since inception, the institution, and subsequently GLA Group of Institutions, transcended new heights of success and quality education with each passing year. Buoyed by all this, he established GLA University in the year 2010 with due recognitions and became its founder, Chancellor.
